November/December 2004 Page 1/6

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT & CEO

It is a great pleasure to join the Ontario Tourism Marketing Partnership Corporation (OTMPC) as President and CEO. Since joining the OTMPC on November 15, I have had the opportunity to get to know many of our tourism partners, operators, stakeholders and city officials across Ontario. On November 24, I attended the Annual General Meetings of the Northern Ontario Native Tourism Association (NONTA) and the Northern Ontario Tourism Outfitters (NOTO), as well as, the Eco-North 2004 Conference in Thunder Bay. Additionally, I have met with the OTMPC Board of Directors in Toronto and recently with Committee Chairs in Eastern Ontario.

At OTMPC, we are committed to building strong partnerships with the tourism industry to ensure our marketing campaigns and initiatives are strategically focussed both at home and internationally. By working together, we can achieve effective and integrated marketing programs to accelerate the growth, success and vitality of tourism in Ontario in 2005 and beyond.

MINISTER'S NEWS ON TOURISM RESULTS

Dear Friends:

The McGuinty government recently issued the first in a series of progress reports on Getting Results for Ontario. The 2004 Progress Report reiterated the importance of working together to grow our economy and build a high quality of life in communities across the province.

As Minister of Tourism and Recreation, I am optimistic about the important role that tourism can play in helping to achieve this goal. I want to give you the results of our government's investment in tourism revitalization, and engage your continued input on how we can boost our tourism industry, now and into the future.

The Ministry of Tourism and Recreation has invested $96.3 million for tourism revitalization since July 2003. An analysis prepared for the ministry by the firm of PKF Consulting estimates that this has generated an additional 4.5 million tourism visits to Ontario and $956 million in tourism spending. The investment leveraged $25.8 million from private sectors and other partners and supported more than 13,157 direct and indirect jobs. To put these numbers into context, you may recall that from July 2003 to April 2004, Ontario lost nearly $2 billion in tourism spending.

We still have not regained 2002 tourism levels, but we are closing the gap. In partnership with the tourism industry, the McGuinty government is getting results for Ontario tourism.

We've definitely come a long way, particularly this past spring and summer, with encouraging indicators on a number of fronts:

- The return on our investment is $8.40 for each dollar invested.
- Overnight trips by U.S. visitors from April to September 2004 were up by 21.4 per cent over 2003.
- Hotel occupancy from April to September improved by 13.8 per cent.

As always, I value your feedback and input on how we can continue to promote tourism revitalization within the framework of our new Ontario Tourism Strategy. Thank you, and I look forward to our ongoing collaboration in building a strong and sustainable tourism industry in Ontario.

Yours sincerely,

Jim Bradley
Minister

MARKETING

Domestic Winter Campaign

The overall aim of the Winter Campaign is to encourage more people to get out and experience the variety of things to see and do in Ontario this winter. OTMPC's winter campaign is fully integrated across four key communications media including television, newspaper, and the web site at <http://www.ontariotravel.net/winter>, and the Winter edition of the inOntario magazine.

The mass marketing focuses on outdoor winter activities including resorts, winter festivals and winter in the city. The television ads will air in the Ontario market from January 10 through January 30. The newspaper campaign will run concurrently with the television ads. The inOntario magazine and the web site support the winter advertising campaign and provide additional information on winter getaway packages.

Looking For A "Winter Escapade" ?

OTMPC is again working with Resorts Ontario on the "Winter Escapade" program. There will be a pre and post Christmas campaign including production of 1 million copies of a full colour newspaper insert (distribution in early January) and 2-30 second radio ads promoting the resort experience and encouraging consumers to purchase Resort Gift certificates. A full interactive program driving consumers to the Resorts Ontario web site is also included in the program.

"Great Drives" in ONTARIO !

OTMPC's Town and Country Committee recently endorsed moving forward on the "Great Drives" initiative. The concept is the creation of a partnered marketing programme that offers a series of driving tours to encourage travel in and around Ontario. It includes three different drive types: Grand Tours (5-7 days), Great Weekend Drives (2-3 days) and Great Day Trips from larger urban areas. Couples and small groups are seen as the target market, with the potential to tap into auto tours, RV rentals (particularly for the offshore fly/drive market) and motorcycle touring enthusiasts. The program will also be linked with the Canada's Best Drives program introduced by Toyota in 2004.

inONTARIO MAGAZINE WINTER EDITION

The second issue of inOntario was well received by the industry generating over $140,000 in revenue. inOntario is the primary vehicle for consumers who want to know how to enjoy Ontario's extraordinary winter travel experiences and opportunities. It is designed to inspire and excite consumers to take a getaway in the winter. Throughout the pages of inOntario Winter 2004, we capture and showcase special times in extraordinary places to inspire travelers to take a getaway and to get the very most out of Ontario. The cover, shot at Taboo Resort, exudes all the fun and warmth an Ontario winter can offer. The editorial features ideas on how to enjoy winter in Ontario from the great outdoors to the cozy fireside and everything in between.

Distribution of inOntario Winter 2004 began on November 10 at Toronto's Union Station where 25,000 magazines were handed out along with five partner brochures to commuters. In addition, LCBO distribution began outside the GTA with the Holiday issue Food & Drink poly bag and will continue with the Winter Food & Drink issue inside the GTA on January 12.

INTERACTIVE MARKETINGWinter Micro Site Launched !

OTMPC launched the winter micro site at <http://www.ontariotravel.net/winter> on November 10 to coincide with the distribution of the inOntario Winter magazine. The site supports and extends the value of the magazine online and integrates packages featured in newspaper ads as part of the winter campaign and also features our vertical web sites: outdoor, snowmobiling and angling. The interactive campaign is supported by a "Win a Winter Adventure Contest in Ontario", a direct e-mail campaign and online advertising to drive web site registrations.

On the Trails

Our snowmobile site launched September 30 at <http://www.ontariotravel.net/snowmobile> along with an interactive CD that mirrors the look and feel of the site. The CD was used effectively at several trade shows to generate interest in snowmobiling in Ontario and as a drive to the web site. The interactive campaign includes a consumer contest with the grand prize of a Yamaha snowmobile to help drive registrations to the web site. Phase 2 of the site launched November 26 and includes enhanced mapping and online tools. An online advertising campaign on major web sites such as www.toronto.com, www.macleans.ca, www.canoe.ca, www.canada.com and a direct e-mail campaign were also launched for the Snowmobile Program on November 29. A second wave of online ads and direct e-mail will be deployed when the trails are open.

Make Tracks In Ontario This Winter

The outdoor vertical site has been updated for the winter season with images and packages relevant to the season. The winter highlights section of the site includes information and packages on dog sledding, ice climbing, downhill skiing, snowboarding, tubing, cross country skiing, snowshoeing and a winter sampler category featuring a variety of unique outdoor and indoor events and activities. The winter campaign includes direct e-mail and links to the "Win a Winter Adventure" contest on the winter micro site. Visit <http://www.ontariotravel.net/outdoor>.

OVER 50 Snow Adventures Now Available On Our Web Site !

There are now close to 300 packaged experiences on OTMPC's outdoor adventure web site <http://www.ontariotravel.net/outdoor>. Dog Paddling Adventures and Gordon's Park Wilderness Retreat have had media coverage as a direct result of their package listing on our site. Park Wilderness Retreat also reports the outdoor site was a significant source of general internet visits to their site. Additionally, David Wells of Naturally Superior Adventures was very pleased the Gales of November art outdoors experience package sold out following our inOntario magazine article.

TRAVEL TRADE

NTA Convention ... Another ONTARIO Success !

On November 12-16, 2004, Toronto hosted the National Tour Association (NTA) with nearly 3,000 delegates attending the largest group tour organization convention in North America. The icebreaker event, "Canadian Street Party" showcasing Ontario, the provinces and major corporate sponsors, kicked off the convention at the National Trade Centre November 13. It was an incredible demonstration of Canadian pride! During the convention, a new name for the organization was launched, Crossphere, The Global Association for Packaged Travel. NTA officials reported this was one of the most successful conventions in their history. Kudos to everyone who was involved!

World Travel Mart (WTM) was held November 8-11, 2004 in London, England. Ontario had an enhanced presence at the show this year through a partnership with Tourism Toronto, as part of the Canada Stand. We had 50 appointments with UK tour operators to discuss and finalize joint Marketing Agreements (JIMAs) for co-op promotions in the U.K. in early 2005.

#1 Overseas Market to Ontario The United Kingdom continues as the #1 overseas market to Ontario. Border crossings from the UK have surpassed 2002 numbers (year-to-date September) at 319,055 up from 2002 (292,152).

KANATA 2004 Trade Show

OTMPC attended the KANATA 2004 Trade Show, which took place October 18-22 in Tokyo and Osaka, Japan. OTMPC had meetings with 28 key tour operators in Tokyo and 17 tour operators in Osaka, providing an opportunity to promote new Ontario products and experiences, as well as discuss future joint marketing opportunities.

China International Travel Mart (CITM)

OTMPC, in partnership with Tourism Toronto, shared the Canada booth during the China International Travel Mart (CITM), held November 25-28 in Shanghai, China. Ontario's presence at the show enhanced our relationships with Chinese travel trade organizations and government officials, as well as reinforcing our presence in the Chinese market. Approximately 40,000 travel trade, media, consumers and government officials attended the show. In addition, meetings with the Ontario Investment Marketing Centre (IMC) took place in order to discuss new joint public relations and marketing opportunities.
